

Laryngectomy Information Wallet Card

I have had a laryngectomy.

This means I cannot my voice to respond to you because my voice box was removed.

My language comprehension and intelligence is intact.

I now use other ways to express my words, such as:

For more information about my stoma care, please contact my speech-language pathologist at: -----

You can also contact my ENT physician for more information at:
